SESSION SPARKS

The most common problem my clients have in the planning phase is usually this: “I don’t know what would be worth photographing.” This stings my heart every time. Any ol’ scenario will do, it just takes a photographer’s vision to draw out the magic.

- MATERNITY LIFE: There is a story here. It’s in the very spot you lounge around & dream of what life is going to be like as a parent. It’s the details this pregnancy has affected your life with, like sleeping with that maternity pillow or your new frozen mango addiction. This session will be part of the story you tell your child when they are expecting.
- A ROAD TRIP OR CAMPING TRIP: First of all, I’m dying to accompany a bunch of good friends heading out for a good time. However, this is also great for families that like to get out of town and check out a new city or get into nature for the weekend.
- AN INDIVIDUAL STORY: Not all sessions have to be about a couple or a family. I picture myself telling individual stories too, whether you are young, single, and independent or you’re older, widowed, and carrying with you a long life of stories - YOU have a story worth photographing today.
- A BUSINESS STORY: Telling the story of a business through photos will give your potential clients or customers a feeling like they already know. This is a great way to humanize your business.
- GET-TOGETHER TALES: In our home, we host game nights, barbeques, or campfire nights with friends & family. The scene constantly changes, because the attendees lives are changing - marriage, kids, old friends over for a visit, new friends, and more. These photos are perfect to pair with stories of “remember that one time....”
- ADVENTURE SESSIONS: Whether a full on vacation, a weekend to the family cabin, or a day on the beach, telling the story of adventure will be an epic photo session. I promise!
- THE GIFT OF A GENERATION: What if you don’t hire me for you? What if we plan to tell the story of your Grandparents or Great Uncle or your parents? What if they agree to a session & we preserve their story?
